[QUICK REVIEW]

Looking at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

[MY STORY]

There are pivotal moments that we are humbled and we realize that we aren't something—we're not going to be a professional athlete, or we're not going to be rich, etc. There are also moments where we realize what we are called to be—a parent, a doctor, or a counselor, etc. Each of these moments can have a profound impact on our stories, whether an open door or one slammed in our face. What is one moment like this in your life?

[DIGGING DEEPER]

In our fourth week of our series on the book of John, we looked at the witness and life of John and the Person his life pointed toward. Re-read the passage from this week.

John 1:19-34

Reflect on one of these questions: Who are you? Who do you work for? Who is your power source? Then, take a look at this verse from Acts 1 about the power of the Spirit...

Read Acts 1:8 (in several different translations if you have time). Rewrite the passage in your own words.

What are some things these verses teach us about God (Father, Son, Holy Spirit)? (i.e. His plan for people, His attributes, His purposes for creation, etc.)

What are some things these verses teach us about people?

If you were to pull one thing from this passage to apply to your life to better follow Jesus as a disciple, what would it be?

[WEEKLY READINGS]

Studies say that someone who reads their Bible 4 times or more a week improves their joy, happiness, contentment, and overall approval of their life. (1 Tim. 4:8-10,16; 2 Tim. 3:16-17). Below are 4 passages of Scripture this week to dive into to pull deeper on our weekend's message. We encourage you to take notes in your Bible, and ask yourself: What does this teach me about God? Myself and others? And how do I follow Jesus better?

John 1

Acts 1

Romans 8

Isaiah 11
