

[SERMON NOTES]

#PartyFoul – John 2:1-12

---

[QUICK REVIEW]

Looking at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

---

[MY STORY]

Every culture throughout history has centered its rhythms around feasts and parties and holy-days. There's something in the human soul that is drawn to celebration, and each of us certainly enjoys a good party for a good reason. What is the best party that you've ever been to?

[DIGGING DEEPER]

In our sixth week of our series on the book of John, we looked at what it means to follow Jesus as his disciple. Re-read the passage from this week.

John 2:1-12

Reflect on this question: What has extraordinary abundance shown up in your life because of what God has done? Then, take a look at this beautiful parallel passage from Isaiah of the banquet table of God...

Read Isaiah 25:6-8 (in several different translations if you have time). Rewrite the passage in your own words.

What are some things these verses teach us about God (Father, Son, Holy Spirit)? (i.e. His plan for people, His attributes, His purposes for creation, etc.)

What are some things these verses teach us about people?

If you were to pull one thing from this passage to apply to your life to better follow Jesus as a disciple, what would it be?

[WEEKLY READINGS]

Studies say that someone who reads their Bible 4 times or more a week improves their joy, happiness, contentment, and overall approval of their life. (1 Tim. 4:8-10,16; 2 Tim. 3:16-17). Below are 4 passages of Scripture this week to dive into to pull deeper on our weekend's message. We encourage you to take notes in your Bible, and ask yourself: What does this teach me about God? Myself and others? And how do I follow Jesus better?

John 2

Isaiah 25

Luke 15

Psalms 23
