

[SERMON NOTES]

[QUICK REVIEW]

Looking at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

[MY STORY]

If you could be on an television or reality show - which show and why?

Which "tv family" do you relate to the most and why?

[DIGGING DEEPER]

Start off today by re-reading the main passages from this Sunday's message:

1 Corinthians 7:10-16 (NIV Translation)

This week's message wrapped up a section of teaching through 1 Corinthians 6 & 7 that focuses primarily on marriage, sexuality, singleness and divorce. We know and realize that our church has many people who have varying stories in each of those categories. In the end, we believe our worldview of relationships and sexuality must be Christ-centered, as they are typically one of the most foundation lenses through which we make major life decisions.

When you think about sexuality and relationships in God's design, what are some of the more frequent tensions you feel or see in our culture today

Read 2 Corinthians 5:16-21

Re-write the passage in your own words:

What are some things these verses teach us about God (Trinity)? (i.e. His plan for people, His attributes, His purposes for creation, etc.)

What are some things these verses teach us about other people?

If you were to pull 1 thing from this passage to apply to your life to better follow Jesus as a disciple, what would it be?

When it comes to viewing our relationships and sexuality through a Christ-centered worldview, how might this passage bring helpful clarity or compassion?

[WEEKLY READINGS]

Studies say that someone who reads their Bible 4 times or more a week improves their joy, happiness, contentment, and overall approval of their life. (1 Tim. 4:8-10,16; 2 Tim. 3:16-17). Below are 4 passages of Scripture this week to dive into to pull deeper on our weekend's message. We encourage you to take notes in your Bible, and ask yourself: What does this teach me about God? Myself and others? And how do I follow Jesus better?

Genesis 2

Galatians 2

Malachi 2

2 Corinthians 5
