

[SERMON NOTES]

[QUICK REVIEW]

Looking at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

[MY STORY]

Would you rather have to listen to the same 10 songs on repeat for the rest of your life or watch the same 5 movies?

Ethical Dilemma: would you steal bread to feed your family? Think or discuss reasons one might argue for and against.

[DIGGING DEEPER]

Start off today by re-reading the main passages from this Sunday's message:

1 Corinthians 8:1-13

In this week's message we see how Scripture calls us to balance the 'permissible dilemma' between what we could do as a disciple - but should we? While all Christians (hopefully) know it's never honoring to willingly sin or do things against God's way, there are sometimes things we are "allowed" to do, but might not be the wisest.

Create a list of things that sometimes fall in a "Permissible Dilemma"

Give an example of something that perhaps changes on whether or not it 'should' be done based on the circumstances.

Why do you think it is important to consider your actions around a "weak minded" brother or sister?

Read - Galatians 2:19-21

Rewrite the passage in your own words:

What are some things these verses teach us about God (Trinity)? (i.e. His plan for people, His attributes, His purposes for creation, etc.)

What are some things these verses teach us about other people?

If you were to pull 1 thing from this passage to apply to your life to better follow Jesus as a disciple, what would it be?

[WEEKLY READINGS]

Studies say that someone who reads their Bible 4 times or more a week improves their joy, happiness, contentment, and overall approval of their life. (1 Tim. 4:8-10,16; 2 Tim. 3:16-17). Below are 4 passages of Scripture this week to dive into to pull deeper on our weekend's message. We encourage you to take notes in your Bible, and ask yourself: What does this teach me about God? Myself and others? And how do I follow Jesus better?

Colossians 3

Genesis 12

John 3

2 Corinthians 6
